

Update for Windows XP (KB898461)

This update installs a permanent copy of Package Installer for Windows to enable software updates to have a significantly smaller download size. The Package Installer facilitates the install of software updates for Microsoft Windows operating systems and other Microsoft products. After you install this update, you may have to restart your system.

How to Uninstall

This software update can be removed via Add or Remove Programs in Control Panel.

Get help and support

<http://support.microsoft.com>

Print | Close